THANKSGIVING DAY.

A complete list of the representatives in Congress elected last week made up from returns received by the Democratic national committee, and compared with those received by the clerk of the House agrees substantially with the estimate sent out by the Associated Press. It shows that the Democratis have elected 222 members, the Reput licans 125 and the Populists 7, giving the Democratis a majority of 90. It the Democratis carry the election for Congressmen in Rhoste Island they will have a majority of 92 over all opposition.

The Cokesbury Circuit was divided at the last session or the Annual Conference held in Charleston, S. C. Nov. 23, 1892.
Cokesbvry Circuit is composed of Cokesbury, Andrew Chapel, Bethiehem and Trinity Churches.
Greenwood Circuit of the following: Asbury Ebenezer, Tranoull and Bethany.

The past week has been an average one and therefore not a very busy one. A feature worthy of mention was the fact that all the committees were announced on the third day of the session. This unusual piece of work on the part of the Speaker was made possible by reason of the fact that the re-election of Mr. Jones was a foregone conclusion, and he was thus enabled to settle upon the greater portion of the committees in advance. In the Senate Mr. Magill made the statement that the committees had been agreed upon at an "informal conference" of the reformers.

OLD OFFICERS RE-ELECTED.

OLD OFFICERS RE-ELECTED.

The sentiment of the Legislature seemed to be that all the old officers should be reinstated. Speaker Ira B. Jones, of Lancaster, was elected without opposition. The other House officers were re-elected with these exceptions: Mr. D. B. Peurlioy, of Edgefield, was made reading clerk in place of Mr. Wilborn who is now a member of the House. Mr. George R. Koester, who reported the State canvass for the Register, was made journal clerk.

In the Senate there were several applicants for the position of reading clerk, but the matter was decided in caucus by the reformers, and the redoubtable Cal Caughman still holds his place.

THEIR BEST MAN ELECTED JUDGE. THEIR BEST MAN ELECTED JUDGE.

The election for a Judge to succeed Judge Kershaw, whose term expires next June, took place on Saturday. Major Ernest Gary, of Edgefield, had an easy walk-over. No other person mentioned for the position ever had any show from the very beginning and they atli "got from under" except Mr. W. D. Trantham, of Kershaw. Mr. Gary was nominated by Senator Timmerman, of Edgefield, and senator Magill, of Kershaw, nominated Mr. Truutham. The ballot was secret, according to the statute. The vote resulted: Gary 121, Trantham 21.

to the statute. The vote resulted: Gary 121, Trantham 21.

Major Gary is in every way well equipped for the duties of a Judge. Though he is only thirty-six years of age he has been unusually successful in both criminal and equity cases and the records of the Supreme Court show that he has been employed in some of the leading and most important causes that have been tried in recent years.

He was born in Cokesbury, Abbeville county, in January, 1857, and is the second son of Dr. F. F. Gary, his mother being Miss Caroline Blackman. As soon as Major Gary heard that he had been elected he took the next train for Charleston to receive a mother's blessing for the honor that had come upon

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Rest from Daily Toil—Thanksgiving.

Last Thursday was the National holiday, and all business in Abbeville was suspended. Dr. Wilson conducted religious services in the Presbyterian church that morning, which were fairly well attended.

The whole day had a Sunday-like appearance, and the cold clear air prevented a great aggregation of loafers on the street corners, sithough it seemed as if everybody was glad of the necessity for going to the post office about four octock.

A number of citizens indulged in turkey dinners, to which many had invited their friends.

No harm was done, and very little good was effected, so viewing it from a business standpoint, the day may be set down as practically lost.

THE DELA HOWE ESTATE.

The Abbevillians are wrestling with the DeLa Howe estate matter. It will be remembered that the trustees and the grand jury have recommended that one thousand acres of the estate be sold in order to obtain funds for carrying on the school. The question arises: Has the Legislature the right to give the power, and have the trustees or anybody the power to sell any portion of the estate? On this the delegation is divided. Messrs. Gary, Graham, Kinard and Magili think that the power can be given, Senator Hemphili thinks not, and Mr. Hill is as yet undecided, but is inclined to favor it.

LAIMS AGAINST THE STATE MUST BE FILED

FORTY DAYS. Mr. Hill has put a quietus on a matter that has caused the General Assembly a good deal of annoyance. It has been the custom to shoot in claims indiscriminately, without regard to the law on the subject. Mr. Hill called the Speaker's attention to the fact that the statute required that all claims should be filed with the Comptroller General forty days before the meeting of the Legislature. It was found that this rule had been violated, and the Speaker gave notice that no claims would be considered hereafter unless they complied with the law.
